Journaling June

We took the opportunities to go out on evangelism in Kharkov and created opportunities for others to go as well. This month we saw thousands of Gospel tracts given out.

Jonathan was able to obtain a tourist visa and spend a week seeing Belgorod for the first time in person. Besides seeing much of the city's historical monuments and museums, such was a good opportunity to meet people and experience the overall temperament of Belgorod's citizens toward Americans and non-Russian Orthodox adherents. As an added bonus, he was able to witness to three people that week.

It's not every day that you get a chance to give a Gospel tract to the mayor of Kharkov while he is surrounded by bodyguards. Pray that he repents and believes. What an amazing testimony that would be!

Cherith and Vivian have been great little helpers out on evangelism. They never complain about how hot it is. They always seem happy to give the Good News to people. These two girls are such a blessing!

Jonathan and Andrew are taking a trip out to Western Ukraine and plan on making a delivery along the way to a missionary who is receiving a Dorcas Project tote full of school supplies, clothing for small children, school clothes, and other items that we pray will aid this fellow IFB missionary in reaching the Gypsy families that God has given him the opportunity to reach.

Usual Prayer Requests

- For Russia's religious freedom
- For the ministry in Kharkov
- For language learning
- For a peaceful end to the war

Update from Ukraine

Hey everybody! We are happy to report that many, many tracts are being given out to people all around the city. We were able to see four visitors come to church on a special week we called "Sundae Sunday." Three were brought by the nationals and God brought in the fourth! Someone was in town looking on the internet for a church that was a "Bible Baptist Church" and we were the church she found. I believe it was a mutual blessing.

We also praise the Lord that Brother Andrew, a friend met at our sending church, was able to arrive safely with no problems along the way. I know he is looking forward to experiencing a mission field for the first time and helping wherever he can.

Already, we have done much preparation for VBS and are looking forward to the during the first week of August. Katrina and I have done everything that we can do to help make this special week a success. Please pray!

Upcoming events in need of prayer is the upcoming, mandatory border trip. This time, I am going to try to cross the border into Russia instead of Poland. I'll take just about any chance I can get to be there, but border-crossings are always complicated.

Also soon to be upon us is a new school year. Please continue to pray for the nostrification of my documents as well as efficient progress in the language.
